

APPENDIX 5.2: Treasury management scheme of consent

The Commissioner has adopted CIPFA's 'Treasury Management in the Public Services: Code of Practice' ("the Code").

The Commissioner's Chief Finance Officer (CFO) shall borrow, temporarily invest and repay monies, subject to any constraints imposed by statute or the CIPFA Code of Practice, and subject to the general directions and within any limits prescribed from time to time by the Commissioner. The Chief Constable does not have the power to undertake any borrowing or investment activity.

The Commissioner will approve the Treasury Management Strategy and Policy prior to the commencement of each financial year having first taken the advice of the Commissioner's CFO. The Commissioner's CFO shall report to the Commissioner from time to time during each financial year on treasury management activity and shall submit a Treasury Annual Report by the end of September each year.

The Commissioner's CFO may make arrangements for the Force Chief Finance Officer, other officers or a strategic partner to undertake or procure, in a manner acceptable to the Commissioner's CFO, the daily management of cash, loans and investment work.

No person shall borrow money on behalf of the Commissioner without the prior written approval of the Commissioner's CFO.

The Commissioner's CFO will approve the arrangements for the treasury management function, including the day to day management, the production of the treasury management strategy, and supporting policies and procedures.

As section 151 officer, the Commissioner's CFO is responsible for:

- recommending clauses, treasury management policy/practices for approval, reviewing the same regularly, and monitoring compliance;
- submitting regular treasury management policy reports;
- submitting budgets and budget variations;
- receiving and reviewing management information reports;
- reviewing the performance of the treasury management function;
- ensuring the adequacy of treasury management resources and skills, and the effective division of responsibilities within the treasury management function;
- ensuring the adequacy of internal audit, and liaising with external audit;
- recommending the appointment of external service providers.
