A. NON-CONFIDENTIAL FACTS AND ADVICE TO THE PCC

A1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

1. The Modern Slavery Programme is fully funded by a Home Office grant and led by Devon and Cornwall Police, and the purpose of the S.22 is to continue an existing national S.22 agreement. Teams have already been established under the preceding agreement, which include representation within local Regional Organised Crime Units (ROCU), to pursue measures such as the collation, assessment and dissemination of intelligence from/ to ROCUs and Forces, the analysis of emerging threats, trends and offender/ victim methodologies and develop the evidence base for operational best practice, including prevention measures, conducting effective investigations, achieving successful prosecutions and other criminal justice outcomes.

2. The ultimate aim of the agreement is the development of the requisite skills for each individual force to itself deal with Modern Slavery matters.
3. Devon and Cornwall, as the recipients of the Home Office grant, will lead on the programme outlined in the agreement and distribute the grant accordingly. All of the other parties agree to indemnify the lead force in relation to liabilities arising from the agreement save where Devon and Cornwall has failed to comply with its own policies and procedures. As lead force, Devon and Cornwall will have the right to inspect and audit other forces' records in relation to the programme.
4. The agreement will come into effect once signed by Devon and Cornwall and ROCU host forces and 75% of national forces and PCCs and will end on 31 March 2020, subject to a likely replacement agreement providing for continuation of the programme of measures beyond that date. The National Police Chiefs Council (NPCC) national lead wishes forces to sign up to this agreement now as it is anticipated that the programme will likely be extended beyond 31 March 2020 on substantially the same terms, albeit using the recently produced APACE model form of s.22 agreement.
5. The Modern Slavery Programme began consultation with regard to the agreement in 2019 and the agreement has been revised in line with feedback from Forces, ROCU's and Office of the Police and Crime Commissioners (OPCC's) and where not revised an explanation has been provided.

A2. LINKS TO POLICE AND CRIME PLAN AND PCC'S STRATEGIES/PRIORITIES

The functions of the Modern Slavery Police Transformation Programme, as outlined in the Section 22A Collaboration Agreement fully support the Police and Crime Commissioner's Community Safety, Policing and Criminal Justice Plan for Lincolnshire April 2017 to March 2021, in particular the key principle of "protecting and supporting victims and the vulnerable".
